COMMUNICATION

I have accumulated two years of experience working as a freelancer on Fiverr, specializing in communication and resolving project issues. Throughout this period, I have gained expertise in discussing client projects and effectively meeting their requirements, resulting in positive reviews on my Fiverr profile. Recently, I completed an internship focused on Laravel, where I gained practical experience over a one-month engagement at a company. During the internship, I contributed to ongoing projects and created new ones using Laravel, enhancing my skills in web development further.
